

WINE OF THE WEEK:

Beni di Batasiolo

Moscato Rose Dolce (Italy) $16

Stacy Slinkard

July 22, 2013

A sweet, sparkling wine treat bringing well-perfumed aromatics and bursting with fresh strawberry and raspberry fruit.

The Batasiolo Moscato Rose promises to be the perfect summer sipper for those looking to find a light-bodied, slightly sparkling, easy on the alcohol and heavy on the fruit wine find.

This particular rosé wine would partner up well with the fresh flavors of strawberry pie, peach cobbler, nutty desserts, or summer salads that are a little lighter on the acidity. Remember to serve well chilled to keep the bubbles and flavors at their peak.
