

850+ WINES REVIEWED PAGE 97

BAROLO 2010 TREASURES FOR THE CELLAR PAGE 64

ARGENTINA'S CABERNET SECRET PAGE 78

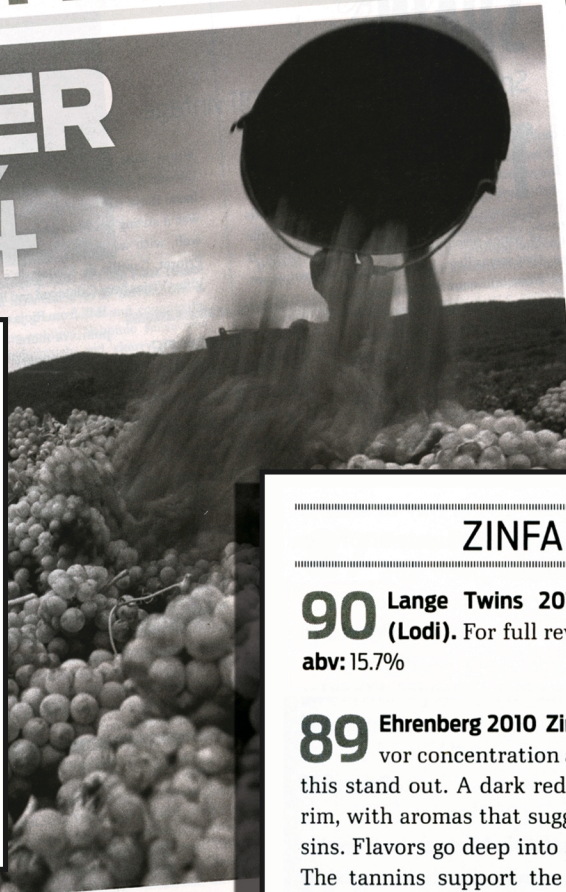

WINE ENTHUSIAST

THE WORLD IN YOUR GLASS

OCTOBER 2014

WINE ENTHUSIAST BUYING GUIDE

OCTOBER 2014

90 Lange Twins 2010 Centennial Zinfandel (Lodi). Lots of fruit character, tannin and oak sensations all blend together in this layered, balanced and yet full-bodied wine. It smells like dark cherries and cinnamon, while flavors suggest ripe raspberries with a dash of maple syrup. Very rich and velvety in texture, it has ample tannin and a lingering finish. —J.G.
abv: 15.7% Price: $60

ZINFANDEL

90 Lange Twins 2010 Centennial Zinfandel (Lodi). For full review see page 107.

abv: 15.7%

Price: $60

89 Ehrenberg 2010 Zinfandel (Lodi). Good flavor concentration and a sense of power help this stand out. A dark red color goes almost to the rim, with aromas that suggest blackberries and raisins. Flavors go deep into sweet oak and dark fruit. The tannins support the wine's overall richness, adding a little grip to the texture. —J.G.

abv: 14.9%

Price: $28

88 Castle Rock 2012 Zinfandel (Lodi). For full review see page 110. Best Buy.

abv: 14.5%

Price: $12

88 Watts 2012 Upstream Zinfandel (Lodi). Balanced toward the bold side, it's full-bodied and shows aromas of ripe grapes and sage, accompanied by flavors of cherry and plum. Layers of fine tannin give it grip without bitterness. Tasty cherry and baking spice flavors linger on the finish. —J.G.

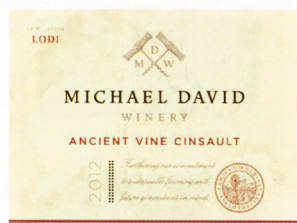

abv: 15.6%

Price: $25

IN THIS

- 98 SPAIN
- 118 PORT
- 121 PIED
- 132 LDIF
- 135 CRO
- 136 BOH
- 136 OTI

FOR ADDITIONAL P

90 Michael David 2012 Ancient Vine Cinsault (Lodi). Taste history in this Rhône varietal made from the oldest vines in Lodi, and one of the few plantings of Cinsault in the state. It is so smooth and polished it could almost be a Pinot Noir. Full-bodied but soft textured, it offers ripe fruit aromas, generous and satisfying fruit flavors and a rich, lingering finish. Editors' Choice. —J.G.
abv: 13.5% Price: $25