

Apr
27

Wine Reviews: Argentina & Chile

Posted by Isaac Baker | Posted in Wine Reviews | Posted on 04-27-2019

PRIMUS

90 Points

2015 Primus The Blend

Chile, Rapel Valley, Colchagua Valley

Medium purple color. The nose shows loads of saucy black cherries, black cherries, along with a burst of black pepper, roasted red pepper, green olives, charcoal pit, along with coffee and vanilla notes. Medium/full-bodied with medium, velvety tannins, with moderating acidity, and everything is quite nicely balanced. Juicy yet tangy cassis and blackberry with a complex mix of anise, pepper, black olive, charcoal, and an underlying sense of rocky minerals. Accessible now but has the depth and concentration to improve for at least a few years. Surprisingly complex and balanced for the price. A blend of Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Carmenera, Petit Verdot, Cabernet Franc. $19 - IJB

